The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, May 12, 1763. [Nº. 94[illegible]]

C A D I Z, January [illegible].

A DUTCH Man of War entered here the [illegible], and it is ſaid ſhe will be followed by ſeveral other Veſſels, to form a ſmall Squadron againſt the Algerines, who have diſpoſed to break with the Dutch. The [illegible] of this [illegible] are ſaid to be a Neglect of the Dutch to fulfil the laſt Treaty with Algiers.

Hague, Feb. 22. By the Peace concluded in Germany, it is ſaid, that all Sileſia, and the County of Glatz, are guarantied to his Pruſſian Majeſty; which is all he ever contended for. He would have made Peace upon the ſame Terms [illegible] Years ago.

The King of Pruſſia will now be looked upon, by all the World, as the HERO of the Age; and will doubtleſs be a principal Arbiter of Europe. How will this Hiſtory aſtoniſh future Ages, when they read, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia, the Queen of Hungary, the Kings of France and Sweden, and the Elector of Saxony, had laid a deep and preconcerted Scheme to deſtroy him, and to divide his Country among them; and that notwithſtanding their Troops were joined by the whole Army of the Empire, and alſo by the Troops of [illegible] and [illegible]; yet his Pruſſian Majeſty, by his Conduct and Intrepidity, baffled all their Efforts, and obliged thoſe Powers to ſheath their Swords in the Year 1763, and to leave him in actual Poſſeſſion of that very Country, on the Account of which he was to have been unjuſtly deſtroyed.

Paris, Jan. [illegible]. We have received the following Account of the Capture of the Baſiliſk Bomb, by the Audacieuſe Privateer of Bayonne.

The Audacieuſe, a Frigate of [illegible] Guns, and 240 Men, commanded by Captain [illegible], ſailed from Bayonne on the 2d of October, and upon the [illegible] in the [illegible] of Newfoundland, fell in with the Baſiliſk, which mounted 8 Guns, and 60 Men. The Engagement began with the greateſt Vivacity; the Baſiliſk's Mizen-Maſt was ſoon carried away; moſt of her Hands wounded, and the Captain himſelf received ſeveral Wounds; but inſtead of yielding, he ſtood [illegible] with his drawn Sword, daring the Audacieuſe's Men, and exhorting his own People [illegible] to [illegible]. Upon which Captain [illegible] gave Orders for Boarding. The two Veſſels ſoon grappled, and the Engagement became more hot than ever. At laſt, the Engliſh Captain and his Firſt Lieut. being no longer able to keep the Deck, the French made themſelves Maſters of the Ship. An [illegible] who was on the Point of throwing a Box of [illegible] into the Sea, was prevented by a Blow from a Sabre.

The French Frigate received very little Damage, and had only three Men wounded. Above Half of the Ship's Company of the Baſiliſk were wounded. The Captain is ſince dead of his Wounds. He was [illegible] from the [illegible] by Admiral Pococke, on the 12th of October. Capt. [illegible] returned to Port Paſſage on the [illegible] Inſtant. His Prize arrived there a few Days before.

L O N D O N, February [illegible].

A Gentleman who arrived in Town Yeſterday from the Weſt of England, ſays, that there has been no Froſt there, but as fine, open, ſerene Weather, as ever was known; and the firſt Appearance he found of the Froſt, was not till he got upwards of 20 Miles on this Side of Exeter.

We hear from [illegible], in Cornwall, that they never had a more moderate Winter than the preſent, ſcarce having either Froſt or Snow.

On the 16th ult. died at Paris, aged 113, Mr. John Conſtant, born at Limoges, in [illegible], June 6, 1649. He was a Lieutenant on Half-pay of the Regiment of [illegible]-Marine, and in 25 Years Service received ſeveral Wounds. He quitted the Army in 1688. He used to ſay, that he was by General St. Hilaire's Side when that Officer had his Arm carried off, in the ſame Inſtant that the Great Turenne was killed by a Cannon Ball. The Prince of Condé gave Orders for Conſtant's Burial, and defrayed the Expence of it.

It is affirmed that in the Definitive Treaty there will be a Clauſe inſerted for the mutual Surrender of all Traitors, Murderers, and Felons, between the Courts of Great-Britain, France, Spain, and Portugal.

A few Days ſince a Veſſel arrived at Plymouth from Belleiſle, with ſeveral Officers of the Train of Artillery, Mareſſes, and ſome Builders who had been ſent over there by the Office of the Ordnance, to repair the Fortifications on that Iſland, by whom we are informed, that the Repairs made there amount to upwards of 700,000 l.

Feb. 9. Laſt Tueſday there was the higheſt Tide at Portſmouth that has been known for many Years. The Inhabitants at the Point were obliged to go in Boats from Houſe to Houſe.

Extract of a Letter from Martinico, Dec. [illegible].

"The Brilliant, [illegible], very rich, from London to Martinico, foundered at Sea, about 150 Leagues from Martinico, by a Plank ſtarting; the Crew ſaved themſelves in their Boats, but, coming near the Iſland, were met in a deplorable Situation, almoſt famiſhed, by a French Privateer, who added to their Sufferings, by ſtripping them all naked, and taking about 4000 l. in Dollars from them, which they had ſaved."

Feb. 10. We hear that no Money will be raiſed this Year for the Government by Subſcription.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand at St. James's, on being appointed Ambaſſador to Spain.

On Monday Sir [illegible] was knighted by his Majeſty at St. James's, he being choſen [illegible] the Order of the Bath was ſent to him. All Knights [illegible] the Order are made Knights by the [illegible] of their [illegible], if at Home, and if not, the firſt Time they [illegible] St. James's after their Arrival.

Feb. 10. By a Ship arrived from Rochfort, we learn, that the French are very buſy in preparing another large Dock in that Place, capable of building Ships of 90 or 100 Guns, and that ſeveral firſt and ſecond Rates are near Half finiſhed, and ſome more about to be laid on the Stocks.

At this Conjuncture, the Superſtition of the Portugueſe may be ſo complaiſant to the Britiſh, the only Friends they have on Earth, who are Reſidents on their Iſland of Madeira, as to grant them the Liberty of interring their Dead on Shore, and not (denying that humble Boon as they have ever done heretofore, to thoſe who are not of their Communion) carry them out in a Boat, guarded by Soldiers, and throw them into the Sea, a League from Shore: It is a Pity and a Shame, that this Diſgrace has not been removed long ago.

Feb. 14. A Scheme is under Conſideration for employing the Soldiers in repairing the public Roads, to inure them to Labour and Induſtry.

The Thames roſe ſo high Yeſterday, that many Houſes on the Surry Shore were two or three Feet deep in Water; and at Lambeth the Long-Walk, by the Biſhop's Palace, was overflowed, and Boats were employed in the Town, to carry People from Houſe to Houſe.

Yeſterday the Tide was ſo high, occaſioned by a ſtrong Eaſterly Wind, that the lower Parts of many Houſes in Wapping were overflowed, and the Inhabitants were obliged to get into the one Pair of Stairs Rooms to ſave themſelves: The lower Parts of ſeveral Houſes were alſo overflowed in Tooley-ſtreet.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Huntington is appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Laſt Sunday Afternoon the Water was above a Foot deep in Weſtminſter-Hall, occaſioned by the extraordinary high Tide.

Feb. 17. Several principal Traders have within theſe few Weeks paſt come over here from different Parts of the Coaſt of France, in order to purchaſe Engliſh Goods.

We hear that Mr. White, the Chemiſt, receives from his Majeſty, to enable him to prepare the late Mr. Ward's Medicines at ſo eaſy a Rate, that they may be purchaſed by the Poor, a Penſion of 300 l. a Year; and Mr. D'Oſterman receives, on the ſame Account, a Penſion of 200 l. a Year.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that on Thurſday laſt, at Night, among many other elegant Illuminations in that City, on Account of the Definitive Treaty being ſigned, was one adorned with the Britiſh Arms, and under it in Capitals, Long live the Duke of Bedford.

Feb. 10. The heavy Rains that have fallen lately have ſwelled the Thames, near Windſor, higher than it has been there [illegible] Years.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Feb. [illegible].

"The Majority of our Council had very nigh overturned all the Articles in the ſalutary Work of Peace; when the King being informed by his Miniſter of their Proceedings, and at the ſame Time, urged to accept of the generous Terms the King of Great-Britain offered him, and that if he did not, it would ruin his People, the King ordered the Treaty ſhould be brought to him, when he immediately ſigned it without any other Ceremony, to the great Joy of the Public in general."

We hear that her Majeſty has been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify her Intention of taking under her Patronage Fifty Girls, not under ſix Years of Age, Daughters of Land Officers, &c. who have loſt their Lives in the Service of the Country during the late War, and have left their Families unprovided for. They are to learn all genteel Accompliſhments, to be uniformly dreſſed, and kept till they are 16 Years of Age, and then to be placed out in the Service of different Ladies amongſt the Nobility and Gentry, and to have a certain Sum each, in order to ſettle them in a decent Manner; an Act of Generoſity worthy the Royal Mind that has formed it, and truly deſerving the Imitation of other crowned Heads.

Feb. 18. The Encomium paſſed on the King of Pruſſia for his Policy in going Sword in Hand with his Treaty, though undoubtedly an Obſervation which has its Foundation in Truth, yet is equally due to the Empreſs Queen, his Rival, as well as to any other Monarch. For to the Honour of Princes be it ſpoken, they have ſo often taken Advantage of each other, under the moſt pacific Appearances, and ſo frequently violated not only Words, but even the moſt ſolemn Oaths, when an Opportunity preſented of oppreſſing one another, that they find themſelves, the Faith of a King is as little to be depended upon as that of a common Man, and therefore they ſeldom now a Days enter into any Negociation, without being, in the Words of Horace, in utramque paratus [illegible].

We are informed, that ſome Fellows meeting a Captain of a Man of War, lately paid off, in Revenge for ill Uſage received from him, actually cut off both his Ears.

It is apprehended that the Scarcity of Money will be ſtill as great this Year, as in the War. It is true the Subſcription will be only 3 [illegible] Millions; but the Navy and Ordnance Debt is at leaſt 8 [illegible] Millions, which, inſtead of being paid, is now made into Stock, and muſt all come to Market; beſides, the late Fall of Stocks has given an Opportunity to the Dutch to withdraw their Money from our Funds, to employ it [illegible], which is at Ten per Cent. and it is thought many of our Countrymen will follow their Example: The Conſequence muſt be very prejudicial to our Trade at this Time.

Feb. 16. By Letters received this Week from Lisbon, the Britiſh Troops were ſtill upon the Frontiers of Spain.

Feb. 18. All the Towns [illegible] the Lower [illegible] and in Weſtphalia, belonging to [illegible], are [illegible] to be evacuated by the French on or before the 15th of next Month.

Sunday the [illegible], which [illegible] the [illegible] are [illegible], to be quartered at [illegible], &c.

The Scheme for eſtabliſhing a naval School for educating and maintaining Subaltern Officers [illegible], and Orphans, [illegible] Fathers have been ſlain this War, is carrying into Execution, and the chief Director is already appointed.

March 1. They write from Modena, that the King of Sardinia has obtained from England, by Way of Gift, four Ships of War, to be employed in [illegible] the Iſland of Corſica. The Pope hath given Permiſſion to his Sardinian Majeſty to levy a Million of Livres yearly on his Clergy, to defray the Expence of keeping theſe four Veſſels, which the Chevalier Balbiano, it is ſaid, is ſet out from Turin to receive from his Britannick Majeſty.

It is ſaid there are four principal Alterations from the Preliminary Articles in the definitive Treaty, in Favour of the Engliſh Merchants, who are to be allowed eighteen Months to ſettle their Accounts at, and bring away their Property from the Evacuated Iſlands.

On Saturday Evening laſt the following ſhocking Affair was tranſacted in Duke's-Court, near St. Martin's Church in the Strand: An elderly Man, a German, under [illegible], lived at the Houſe of a Silverſmith, in the above Court, went to a public Houſe for a full Pot of Beer, which he ſaid he would carry Home himſelf; but, after being gone out with it for ſome Time, returned, and ſent it by the Boy [illegible] to the Alehouſe. It is ſuppoſed, that during that Interval he put ſome Poiſon into the Beer, for the Silverſmith and his Wife, in about an Hour after drinking it, were taken ſo exceſſively ill, that had they not had immediate Aſſiſtance from an eminent Surgeon in the Neighbourhood, they muſt have ſoon expired. All the Symptoms of their having been poiſoned appear; and as a ſtrong corroborating Circumſtance, the old Man has abſconded: It is likewiſe obſervable that he often had been inquiring after the State of his Friend's Affairs, whom he imagined to be rich; and a ſmall remaining Quantity of the Beer, at the Bottom of the Pot, has a very diſagreeable Smell.

The Oroonoko, in her Paſſage home, took a Ship from Virginia bound for London, with 338 Hogſheads of Tobacco.

Letters from Liſbon, of the 5th of January ſay, that the Engliſh Fleet of 33 Ships from Portſmouth, and 13 from Newfoundland, were arrived there.

The Cunningham, Montgomery, is arrived at Clyde from Virginia, having lately put into Lamlaſh; while detained there, a Ship belonging to London from Jamaica, came in, reduced to the utmoſt Extremity for Want of Water and Proviſions, having for three Weeks before lived entirely upon Rum and Sugar. Another Ship, bound to Liverpool from the Weſt Indies, had juſt got into the Sound of Islay in ſtill greater Diſtreſs, their Proviſions and Water being entirely exhauſted, ſo that they were under the Neceſſity of eating their Dog, Shreds of Leather, &c. In this Situation they beat about for ſeveral Days; and at laſt were reduced to think of ſacrificing one of their Number for Suſtenance to the Remainder, when providentially they diſcovered Land, which revived their Spirits, and meeting with a Fiſhing Boat, they got Aſſiſtance and Relief from her till they made the Shore.

Benjamin Green, Eſq; is appointed Governor of Nova-Scotia, and will ſoon ſet out for that Colony.

Stamford, Jan. 28. The following ſhocking Accident happened two or three Days ago at Corby, near Bourn, in Lincolnſhire, a Man going out very early in the Morning, called up his Son, a Boy about nine or ten Years of Age, to go along with him. The Wife in Bed wanted to take ſtay of the Lad, and bid him come to Bed to her, for he ſhould not go. The poor Boy had no ſooner got into Bed, and fallen aſleep, than the Woman tied Something about his Neck, drew him up againſt the Bed-poſt, and cut his Throat from Ear to Ear. The Jury brought in their Verdict Lunacy.

Sherborne, Feb. 7. A Correſpondent at [illegible], in Cornwall, writes, that the Winter there has been as mild as ever known, and that he has new Beans in Bloſſom in his Garden.

Cork, Jan. 24. The General Abbott, Capt. [illegible], with 1000 Hogſheads of Sugar, beſides Coffee and Cotton, from Guadeloupe for London, was taken the 20th ult. by a Privateer of 18 Guns, belonging to Bayonne, and ſent [illegible] the ſame. The Privateer had alſo taken the Ships of [illegible] Francis, from Lancaſter to Virginia; Capt. [illegible], from Liverpool for Africa; and Capt. Gamble, from Virginia to Liverpool; all which Captains were put on board a Swediſh Ship, and landed at Waterford.

Dublin, Feb. 8. Sunday a Number of diſcharged Seamen arrived here from England; one of them had the Humanity, on ſeeing a miſerable blind Object, almoſt naked, on George's Quay, to take off his great Coat and give it him, ſaying, he was happy in parting with one Coat to cover the Nakedneſs of his Fellow Creature.

Saturday Mrs. Rice was examined at the Manſion-Houſe, touching her Huſband defrauding the South-Sea, Bank, and Million Bank, Companies, to the Amount of [illegible] l. by forging Letters of Attorney. The Bank-Notes, &c. found on her on Friday laſt, amounted to above 4000 l. They were ſeized by Order of the Directors of the South-Sea Company.

On Friday in the Afternoon ſeveral more Forgeries were found in the Bank, amounting to near 80,000 l. This is ſaid to be the largeſt Forgery ever committed in England.

On Saturday Mrs. Rice paſſed under a ſecond Examination before the Lord Mayor, [illegible] the Attorney who had been [illegible] with Mr. Rice's Buſineſs; but [illegible] relating to the Affairs of Mr. Rice, [illegible] was ſent to the Poultry-Compter, and Mrs. Rice was left to the Care of a Gentleman until farther Examination Yeſterday, when ſhe made ſome valuable Diſcoveries, and delivered up more Notes and Bonds to a conſiderable Amount.

It appears that Mr. Rice writes a very bad Hand, and the Forgery was a remarkable fine one, which gives great Room to ſuſpect there are more concerned.

Orders are ſent to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, by the Secretaries of State, to petition his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to cauſe Orders to be iſſued out for detaining Mr. Rice, if he is found in his Majeſty's Dominions.

In Yeſterday's French Mail a ſecond Letter was intercepted from Mr. Rice, ſigned Thomas Howard, and directed to John Rogers, which was dated from Amſterdam, giving an Account that he was gone for Italy.

It is ſaid that Rice, during his being in Cuſtody by Order of the French King, applied by Letter to the Archbiſhop of Cambray, ſignifying his earneſt Deſire of embracing the Romiſh Religion, upon which the Archbiſhop immediately demanded him of the Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody he was, who immediately delivered him up (ſo much ſuperior is the Power of the Church to Regal Authority) ſince which he is ſaid publicly to have received the Catholick Faith, and ſome add, he is even commenced Prieſt.

Edinburgh, Jan. 15. By a Letter from Brechin, we are informed, that ſome Days ago, the River hard by that Place, commonly called the North-Water, all on a Sudden dried up, and continued ſo, from Six in the Morning till Twelve Mid-day, when the Water again returned, and began to flow as uſual.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Feb. 18.

"The Definitive Treaty was ſigned the Tenth Inſtant, and will be ratified a Month hence; after which three Months will be allowed for the Troops to evacuate, and eighteen Months for Engliſh Subjects, in their own Veſſels, to tranſport themſelves, and their Effects.—There is to be an entire Demolition of Dunkirk.—The Points reſpecting the Eaſt Indies are given up to us; and all Ambiguities, in the Preliminaries, explained in the moſt ſatisfactory Manner for Britain. The Troops, as they evacuate the Havannah, will take Poſſeſſion of Mobille and St. Auguſtine."

Extract of another Letter from the ſame Place, dated February 21, 1763.

"The Definitive Treaty is now ſigned, and, though it is not yet made public, I can aſſure you (for I have read it) it is better, in many Particulars, than the Preliminary Articles. The Eaſt India Company's Affairs are ſettled on their own Plan, and Dunkirk is to be demoliſhed, to the Satisfaction of His BRITANNIC MAJESTY. Some ſay the Duke of Bedford behaved with great Firmneſs at Paris; others, that the French, with great Facility, yielded to every Thing we inſiſted on. Be that as it will, we have, beyond all Doubt, obtained a very glorious Peace, which, if we have Sagacity enough to improve, muſt render us a very flouriſhing and happy People.—At preſent all is quiet at home, the Oppoſition to the Peace, which, in Truth, was only an Oppoſition to MEN, not to MEASURES, being now intirely dropt."

By Captain Butler, from St. Chriſtophers, we have Advice, that four ſmall Veſſels have been cruizing for ſome Time, in a pyratical Manner, off of Guadaloupe and Martinico, and had taken four Veſſels, two of them ſaid to be New-England Men; but that one of the Pyrates was taken, and carried to St. Euſtatia; and that the Captain, named Shott, and ſeven of his Men, had been tried, and received Sentence of Death.
